BOB LEONARD

Coach

Hometown: Terre Haute, Indiana

Residence: Carmel, Indiana

Bobby Leonard has been a winner all of his basketball career. He played his high school ball at Terre Haute Gerstmeyer and went on to Indiana University. At I.U., "Slick," a nickname he picked up during his playing days, was a two-time All-American and led the Hoosiers to two Big 10 titles and the N.C.A.A. National title in 1953. Bobby was also selected as the Hoosier's Captain and Most Valuable Player.

Leonard is a tremendous pro coach who commands the respect of all his players. Pacer Captain Freddie Lewis says of his coach, "It's great to play for Slick. He has a complete knowledge of what professional basketball is all about; but more important, being an ex-player himself, he knows what each of us is going through on and off the court."

Bob in his playing days at I.U. 1952-54.

In 1968-69, Bob led Indiana from the cellar to the Eastern Division title and into the championship play-offs against Oakland. This earned Bob "Coach of the Year" honors in the A.B.A. Following the near-miss in '69, Leonard dedicated the Pacers to winning the A.B.A. title, which they accomplished last season.

In addition to his chores with the Pacers, Bob is a very successful manufacturers representative for the Herff-Jones Company. He and his lovely wife Nancy live in Carmel, Indiana with their four children Terri, 14, Bobby, 13, Billy, 10, and Tommy, 2½.

JOHN WEISSERT

Vice-President &

General Manager

John is starting his "rookie" season as the Pacers General Manager. Weissert was appointed to his new position on June 1 succeeding Mike Storen who left to take a similiar position with the Kentucky Colonels.

Prior to taking his position with the Pacers, John was with Indiana National Bank for 14 years, serving the last five years as Vice-President and Director of Marketing. His responsibilities were in the area of advertising and promotion.

Taking over the reigns of one of the most successful franchises in pro basketball, John will concentrate much of his efforts to the Pacers new arena plans. John will be investigating land sites, and financing possibilities.

Pacer President L. Charles DeVoe said of Weissert's appointment; "John is a very capable individual and we are certain he will do a fine job in keeping Indiana a growing organization."

A very pleasant and personable individual, John is extremely promotion-minded and his leadership will surely keep Indiana among the leaders in attendance in either league.

When Weissert accepted his new position he pledged, "A continuation of exciting basketball, in an arena befitting a championship team, unsurpassed fans, and a major league city."

A native of South Bend, Indiana, Weissert graduated from Indiana University in 1952. He now resides in Indianapolis with his wife Blanche, and their two sons, John and Robbie.

BILL ORWIG

Assistant

General Manager

The former "voice of Indiana University" joined the Pacers last December as the Director of Marketing and Communications and was promoted to Assistant General Manager just six months later.

Bill, son of I.U. Athletic Director, J. W. "Bill" Orwig, graduated from Indiana after majoring in Radio, Television, and Journalism. While at I.U., Bill did the play-by-play of the football and basketball games for the Hoosier network. Most recently, Bill has been involved with Pacer and I.U. basketball on TV-13. He is also the producer and host of "Pacer Points" and "The John Pont Show."

Bill is married to the former Barbara Dillon. He and Barb have two children; Angie, 7 and Erik, who is 4.

TOM FESKE

Publicity Director

Tom has been with the Pacers for a year and handles all press relations. In addition, he is in charge of advertising sales, coordination of the game program and the Pacer's film and speaker's bureau.

A graduate of the University of Notre Dame with a degree in Communications, Tom was a recipient of the William F. Fox Memorial Scholarship, which is named for the late Sports Editor of the Indianapolis News.

A native of Indianapolis and a graduate of Cathedral High School, Tom is married to the former Mary McCahill.

DAVE CRAIG

Trainer

Dave Craig was named the Pacers' trainer just one week before rookie camp started. Dave graduated from Purdue from the Pre-Med school and worked with "Pinky" Newell, the Purdue trainer, for six years. During his summers, Dave spent time in the Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings' training camps. A very pleasant young man, Dave is extremely capable. Newell said of Dave, "he has the intelligence and dedication to be a fine athletic trainer."

Dave, 23 and a bachelor, is a native of Lafayette, Indiana.

GARY McFALL

Promotion Director

Gary McFall joined the staff of the Indiana Pacers this past summer and is in charge of "Pacer Products". He is also responsible for the pre-game and half-time shows plus group sales and special nights.

Gary graduated from Washington High School in Indianapolis and Indiana University. Before joinnig the club, Gary worked for REN, Inc., a public relations firm in Indianapolis. Still a bachelor, Gary lists water activities and travel as his favorite activities.

WARREN ARMSTRONG 15

Guard-Forward 6'2" 205

College: Wichita State '68

Hometown: Kansas City, Kansas

Birthdate: 8-29-46

Pro Experience: 2

Warren Armstrong came to the Indiana Pacers just two days before the season opener. The 1968 A.B.A. "Rookie of the Year" was obtained from the Kentucky Colonels for the Pacers 1971 first round draft choice and an undisclosed amount of cash. Armstrong had spent two seasons with the Virginia franchise and was obtained by Kentucky in the off-season.

Armstrong can play either forward or guard with equal ability. His versatility gives the Pacers much more flexibility over the long season.

Pacer fans remember Warren for his 35 foot shot with four seconds left in the third game of the 1969 championship play-offs which produced a tie and paved the way for the Oaks to defeat the Pacers for the league title.

Warren holds the A.B.A. record for most points in the play-offs (460) and most FT's in the play-offs (135). Armstrong set both records in 1969 when he led Oakland to the league title. During the regular season in 1969, Warren finished 10th in both scoring and assists.

Following his career at Wichita State, Warren held seven school records, was named to the All Missouri Valley Conference team three years and was named his team's MVP two years. Warren was a 3rd round pick of the New York Knicks of the N.B.A. in 1968.

Warren and his wife Hiaba have one daughter, Asha, who is 10 months old.

JOHN BARNHILL No. 12

Guard 6'1½" 183

College: Tenn. State '59

Hometown: Evansville, Indiana

Birthdate: 3-30-38

Pro Experience: 8

The "old pro" of the Pacer backcourt, John Barnhill came to the Pacers the day before the season opened last year.

"Barney" played for seven seasons in the N.B.A. playing with St. Louis, Detroit, San Deigo, and Baltimore before coming to the A.B.A. and the Pacers. John's performance in the early part of the season helped Indiana get off to a fantastic start. However, a reoccuring groin injury slowed John for much of the remainder of the year.

Extremely quick and deceptive, Barnhill also proved to be an effective 3 point shooter. John led the club in "home-runs" last year with 71 and set a club record by hitting six in one game.

John and his lovely wife Janet, now make their home in Indianapolis with their three children, Johnny, 10, Schylar, 8, and Elayna, 1½. During their free time the Barnhills all enjoy an evening bowling.

ART BECKER No. 43

Forward 6'8" 210

College: Arizona State '64

Hometown: Akron, Ohio

Birthdate: 1-12-42

Pro. Experience: 3

Art Becker came to Indiana last October in a trade with Carolina. During the season Art proved to be the best sixth man in the A.B.A. He has the rare ability to come off the bench and get 2 or 3 quick baskets without really getting warmed up.

Art spent the first 2 years of his pro career with Houston, one of the poorest teams in the league. The switch to a team like the Pacers was a welcome change for Art. "When he told me I'd been traded to Indiana", Art said, "I could have almost kissed him."

A tremendous shooter with a very soft touch, Art provides strong relief for any of the front line starters. This season Art reported to camp in great condition and was anxious to start the Pacers defense of the A.B.A. title.

Art makes his off-season home in Tempe, Arizona with his wife Lynn, and their 2 children, Tracy, 5 and Mark, 2½. In their free time the Beckers can usually be found on the tennis courts, both Art and Lynn are very good amateur tennis players.

ROGER BROWN No. 35

Forward 6'5" 212

College: Dayton University '64

Hometown: Brooklyn, N.Y.

Birthdate: 5-22-42

Pro Experience: 3

"Mr. Clutch", "the Man of 1,000 moves" whatever nickname you choose to describe Roger Brown, you can be certain Roger will live up to it.

Named the Most Valuable Player for last year's play-offs, Roger established two new A.B.A. play-off records by scoring 53 points in one game and by hitting 7 3-pointers in another game. In his last 3 games with the Stars, in the final series, Roger scored 53, 39, and 45 points.

During the regular season, Roger led the Pacers in scoring (23.3); assists (392); 3-point field goal accuracy (.333); and minutes played (3495). He also became only the 6th player to score 5,000 points in the A.B.A. thus far.

Besides his play-off records, Roger also holds the league record for most consecutive 2-point field goals. Over a three game span, Roger hit an incredible 21 straight shots. Last season Roger also set the club record for most consecutive 3-point field goals by hitting 5 in a row.

During the off season, Roger had a bursa sac removed from his left knee which should help to prolong his career. A native of Brooklyn, New York; Roger was named to the second unit of last years All-League team.

Roger and his wife, Carolyn, have one son, Roger, Jr., and make their home in Indianapolis.

MEL DANIELS No. 34

Center 6'9" 225

College: New Mexico '67

Hometown: Albuquerque, N.M.

Birthdate: 7-20-45

Pro. Experience: 3

Mel Daniels has been the A.B.A.'s All-League center for each of the 3 years it has been in operation. In 1967-68 Mel was the "Rookie of the Year" and then was traded to Indiana. The following season, 1968-69 Mel was named the league's Most Valuable Player and led the Pacers to the Eastern Division title and into the final play-offs against Oakland, which Oakland won 4 games to 1.

This past season Mel's scoring dropped, but his rebounding increased and his defense improved and the Pacers won the A.B.A. Championship.

Since coming to Indiana and playing for Bobby Leonard, Daniels has improved immensley. "Slim" has developed a left-hand hook and is shooting better. He picks up the open man well and also gets the ball out very quickly to start the fast break. Mel still doesn't go to his right as well as to his left, but worked this past summer on a right hand hook. He shoots the turn-around jumper as well as any big man in the league.

Mel is a very driving and determined type of player. He holds the league record of most rebounds in one game with 34. He also holds the club record of most points in a game with 56.

Mel attended Pershing High School in Detroit. Pershing also has put Spencer Haywood and Ralph Simpson in the A.B.A.

Mel and his wife, Cece, make their off-season home in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

EARLE HIGGINS No. 23

Forward 6'8" 200

College: Eastern Michigan '70

Hometown: Ann Arbor, Mich.

Birthdate: 12-30-46

Pro. Experience: 0

A tremendous offensive performer out of college, Earle was the first player drafted by San Francisco of the N.B.A. Earle has a very quick fade-away jumper which is impossible to stop.

At Eastern Michigan, Earle set several school scoring marks and led his team to the national finals of the NAIA, where he won All-Tourney honors.

Earle, at 6-8 and 200 pounds is on the thin side and must gain some strength to battle underneath in the pros. A fine ballhandler for a big man, Earle occasionally brought the ball up court for Eastern Michigan in pressing situations. Higgins still makes the normal "rookie" errors and must concentrate more on his defense. He could mature and develop into a fine pro forward.

A bachelor, Earle's favorite hobby is fishing.

BILL KELLER No. 11

Guard 5'10" 185

College: Purdue '69

Hometown: Indianapolis, Ind.

Birthdate: 8-30-47

Pro. Experience: 1

Bill Keller was the only rookie on the Pacer squad last season. He worked very hard last year to earn his job and by the season's end he was in the starting line-up. His best performance came in the Kentucky play-off series when he held Louie Dampier to an average of 13 points per game, 12 below his average and raised his own scoring average 8 points to 16 points per game.

Keller has always been a winner. His high school team won the Indiana State Tournament his senior year. Then at Purdue his senior year he helped the Boilermakers win the Big 10 title and then onto the NCAA tournament before bowing to U.C.L.A. in the Championship game. And, of course last season the Pacers won their first A.B.A. title.

The style of play Keller exhibits is the hustling, fighting, scrapping type of play. He is usually coming up with the loose basketballs or forcing his opponent into making an error. A great shooter, Billy developed into a fine 3-point shooter after his first season.

Bill played together with Pacer rookie Rick Mount for 2 seasons up at Purdue. During those two seasons Purdue won 1 Big 10 title and more games than before in Purdue history.

Born and raised on Indianapolis' west side, Keller, who is a bachelor, still resides in Indianapolis.

FREDDIE LEWIS No. 14

Guard 6'0" 182

College: Arizona State '64

Hometown: McKeesport, Pa.

Birthdate: 7-1-4

Pro. Experience 4

The Pacer captain for the past 3 seasons, Freddie is one of the most underrated and most consistent players in the league. A very good jumper, "Fritz" directs the Pacers offense and usually picks up the opponents top guard on defense.

Freddie came to Indiana after one year with the Cincinnati Royals where he learned a lot from Oscar Robertson.

An All-American at Arizona State, Freddie holds several scoring records at the University and is one of the best basketball players in Sun Devil history. Freddie has a good outside shot, and with his jumping ability Freddie also is able to drive to the basket very well.

Fritz led the club in scoring the first year, but the last two seasons his scoring has dropped off and he is concentrating more on running the team offense.

Lewis has been a very durable player for the Pacers, missing very few games in 3 years. In last spring's play-offs it was Freddie's 20 foot jumper that iced the 6th game for the Pacers which won them their 1st A.B.A. title.

Freddie and his wife, Inez have 2 children, Benji, 6, and Sherri Lynn, 5. Freddie and his family live in Indianapolis the year round.

RICK MOUNT No. 10

Guard 6'4" 180

College: Purdue '70

Hometown: Lebanon, Ind.

Birthdate: 1-5-47

Pro. Experience: 0

The name Rick Mount is synonamous with Indiana basketball. Born and raised in Lebanon, Indiana, Rick had a fantastic high school career which won him a cover story in Sports Illustrated magazine (the first time a high school athlete had been on the cover of Sports Illustrated).

A fantastic shooter from anywhere on the court, Rick is extremely dedicated to the game of basketball. This past summer Rick worked on his ballhandling and his defense in preparation for his adjustment to pro ball.

"The Rocket" had a great career at Purdue. When he finished his career he held practically every Boilermaker and Big 10 scoring record imaginable. His junior year he finished as the nation's second leading scorer (33.3); he finished third in the nation last year (35.4).

He was a concensus All-American and was one of the top 5 draft picks out of last spring's great college group. At 6-4 he has good size for a pro guard. What Mount lacks in all out speed he makes up for in quickness, he releases his shot as quick as anyone in basketball.

Among his many honors Rick was named the Big 10's Most Valuable Player and the Boilermakers' Most Valuable Player. He was named to the NCAA All-Tourney team in 1969.

Rick, his wife Donna, and their 10 month old son Richard Paul live in Lebanon, Indiana, Rick's hometown. In his spare time, Rick enjoys hunting, fishing and golf.

BOB NETOLICKY No. 24

Forward: 6'9" 227

College: Drake '67

Hometown: Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Birthdate: 8-2-42

Pro Experience: 3

Bob Netolicky is the "glamour boy" of the Indiana Pacers. "Neto", who completes the Pacers All-Star frontcourt along with Brown and Daniels, is one of the most eligible bachelors in Indianapolis. Bob started his own nightclub last spring and he operates a New York style nightclub and bar.

Extremely fast and agile for a man 6-9, with his height he presents many match-up problems for opposing teams. His soft, sweeping hook shot is one of the toughest shots to stop in the league. Neto also has a good shot from the 15-18 foot range. A good jumper, Bob was 15th in the league in rebounding last season with nearly 11 rebounds per game.

Netolicky has the most trouble going to his left and putting the ball on the floor. However, on the wing of a fast break Bob is almost impossible to stop with his size and speed.

A big favorite of hometown "coaches", Neto had his best season last year averaging over 20 points per game and almost 11 rebounds per game. In years past Bob's inconsistency had been the object of criticism from many of the Pacer fans.

Netolicky is famous for his collection of rare or unsual pets. Among those animals Neto has owned is a boa constrictor, a lioness, and an ocelot. At present, Neto has settled down to a labrador retriever.

TOM THACKER No. 44

Guard 6'3" 188

College: Cininnati '63

Hometown: Covington, Ky.

Birthdate: 11-2-41

Pro Experience: 5

The "dogg" is the Pacers' swingman between guard and forward and Tom is one of the best in the A.B.A. An extraordinary defensive player, Thacker has extremely quick hands and great basketball sense.

Last spring Tom had a fine play-off series and keyed several wins, thus becoming the first man to be on a championship team in both the N.B.A. and the A.B.A. Tom was a member of the 1967-68 Boston Celtic team in the N.B.A.

Not known for his offensive powers Tom had several outstanding performances in last spring's play-offs and hit a couple of key 3-pointers to help Indiana win its first title.

A member of the great Cincinnati Bearcat team that won 2 N.C.A.A. titles and finished second the third year. Tom won many All-American honors while at Cincy.

A very intelligent player, Tom sometimes helps with the coaching whenever Coach Leonard is asked to leave the game early.

Still a bachelor, Tom enjoys poetry, painting and sculpture in his free time.
